Alarm Clock - Record a stopwatch to the selected folder. Win a digital photo frame with 10 of Your photos, plus a huge variety of virtual backgrounds. Blow up (a military game similar to a ninja) - Blow up the spy's hiding place Description Well, when it comes to finding great ways to pass time, looking through your apps that aren't really worth your time is the way to go. Tired of exploring through the endless lists of things that are out there? Fortunately, that's exactly what this app is here to help you with. This application is packed with lots of cool features, such as updating your Facebook status, viewing your schedule, customizing home screens and much more. In addition, you can download up to a million songs directly to the app without actually needing to deal with your files and folders. Still, if you want to get into the truly powerful part of this app, you should download the full version. It comes with a ton of new features, such as the ability to actually create a playlist from a bunch of songs. Besides that, you get to do a lot more than what you can see from the paid version. So, what more can you get? Well, it's actually quite a lot, but it all boils down to how much time you would want to spend with this app and how much you think you can benefit from it. If you don't have that much time to pass, then the old paid app is more than enough to help you. The Paid version has a total of 19 different features, including the Facebook integration and an awesome slideshow-function. The app will automatically create a slideshow of all the photos you have. However, it doesn't hurt to have both the paid and the free version. The app will update itself to the free version automatically, and the bigger, paid version still has the other features you can't get in the free version. If you plan on spending lots of time with this app, then this is the one to buy. It doesn't have anything extra in the free version, but it actually has a lot more to offer. So, choose between the paid version or the free version and you'll be in a good place. Best aa67ecbc25
