mapmagic bangkok.rar. zip Message A. Å» 01 May 2017, 21:59 It seems to me that I lack some basic understanding, I don't even know what. Here I am doing a layout on the "card of the day" - I want to know if something will happen for worse or for better. I look at the maps and understand that there are good prerequisites for events in the near future, but in general the state of affairs is very precarious, everything will depend on the "consequences of yesterday's battle." Can I do this alignment, as I understand it, or do I need to redo something?
