

MacBook Air 13-inch 2016 with a 4GB RAM, 128GB storage, dual band 802.11ac WLAN, Bluetooth, built-in SIM card reader, USB 2.0 Type-A, Micro HDMI port, Mini DisplayPort. (6) I'm taking the Transformer Book for a trip in September. I want to record the display to put on YouTube. It is too cumbersome to do this with a laptop. Do you have any other suggestions of video recording laptops for the three months I will be traveling in September? (2) I love your blog! I have had a WordPress website for years, which is a bit old and bloated. Do you think you could please write a tutorial on how to easily migrate my blog from WordPress to a static HTML website? (3) I would really like to get your opinion on a piece of software I am using called Aegis Video File Converter. I would like to get the Best use out of it, and would like some pointers on how to use it in the most efficient way possible. It is a great piece of software but I am having problems achieving the desired results. (4) I am about to order a new monitor from the United Kingdom. Do you think the Samsung 20.5" 27" UHD LED Monitor with a 144 Hz refresh rate is worth the money? The price is $679.00 (USD). I have been looking at the LG 34UC68 for $714.00 (USD), but the LG offers no USB 3.0 port. Do you know of any monitors that offer both a USB 3.0 port and a USB 2.0 port? (5) I have a iMac late 2009 and I need to up the RAM to 8 GB. What are your suggestions? (6) I got a new monitor the other day, the LG 34UC65, and it is the cheapest 34" UHD (4K) monitor. I have been looking at the Asus PB34VQ and the ViewSonic VP3465W and I can't decide which one to get. Which one do you recommend? (7) I bought a used MacBook Pro from a local store and they sold me a 2GB RAM. Do you think this will be sufficient? (8) I can connect two Samsung T2 desktop monitors by USB, but my MacBook Pro is not compatible with them. Do you have any suggestions? Mac
